

Conference programme 2015

Thursday 19 November 2015
9.30am	Registration desk opens Foyer
10.30am	Pre-conference workshop: Dr Bruce Rumbold on spiritual care Aparima Room
12.00pm	Lunch
12.45-2.00pm	Pre-conference workshop, continued
2.00pm	Meet and greet opportunity for all new members of the psychosocial and social support workforce and existing DHB workforce
3.00pm	Afternoon Tea
3.30pm	Opening ceremony and powhiri; welcome to Invercargill by PONZ Conference Organising Committee (including short video clip) Address by Kathryn Taylor , PONZ president Presentation of the PONZ Outstanding Service Award Aparima Room
4.00-5.50pm	Jan Eggleton : 'Hardcases': workshop on collaborative workplaces Aparima Room
6.30pm	'Southern Fare': informal dinner at the Ascot Mararoa & Whitestone Rooms

Friday 20 November 2015
8.00am	Registration desk opens Foyer
9.00am	Plenary panel: 'the art of collaboration', facilitated by Assoc Prof David Perez Aparima Room
10.10am	Morning tea
10.40am	Plenary panel discussion Aparima Room
11.40am	Keynote address Assoc Prof Lois Surgenor : The promise and perils of positive psychology in cancer Aparima Room
12.35pm	Lunch
1.25pm	Sue Wragg : Central Cancer Network Supportive Care Framework Aparima Room
	Stream one: Oreti Room	Stream two: Aparima Room
2.15pm	Kathryn Taylor : Distress screening	Marj Allan : The power of stories
2.50pm	Afternoon tea
3.20pm	Maria Stapleton : Cancer care co-ordination - it takes a team	Celine Collins : Research results of specialist care nurses' perceptions of the legalisation of euthanasia and physician-

		assisted suicide
3.55pm	Assoc Prof David Perez: Spirituality	Sarah McCambridge & Anna Griffiths: Stress and cancer: the role of causal beliefs
4.30pm	Hazel Nesar: Team building and communication - an interactive workshop	Katie Maher: Protective factors in haematological malignancies: a presentation of research
5.05-5.35pm	Warrick Sue: CanNect - CanTeen's model of peer support	Bruno Aldaz: It gets into your head as well as your body: patients' experiences during cancer treatment and healthcare professionals' perspectives of patients' psychosocial needs
7.00pm	Optional theatre dinner; Scottish Hall, Esk St (courtesy bus available from Ascot Park Hotel at 6pm)

Saturday 21 November 2015
8.00am	Registration desk opens Foyer
8.00am	PONZ AGM (breakfast) Mararoa and Whitestone Room
9.15am	Keynote address Dr Bruce Rumbold: Spirituality in cancer care Aparima Room
10.20am	Morning tea
	Stream one: Oreti Room	Stream two: Aparima Room
11.00am	Dr Monika Clark-Grill: Integrating complementary medicine: what one needs to think of	Dr Simone Petrich BRCA patients: where do they fit in?
11.35am	Stephanie Turner: Māori perspectives on end of life care	Andy Leggat: 'Moving Forward' education and support programme at the Cancer Society, Auckland
12.10-12.40pm	Conference close, including presentation of the Doug Sexton Award for First Time Presenter Karakia and waiata Aparima Room

Poster presentations
Most common beliefs regarding causes of cancer by patients and their supporters Jenny Allison, Andy Leggat, Sarah McCambridge
An exercise rehab focus for cancer patients Adiella Stewart
Beyond collaboration: Exploring what makes student interprofessional learning meaningful Hazel Nesar et al.
An insight into the distress and problems identified by those accessing a cancer psychology service Sarah McCambridge